Vol. 6, No. 9 March 8, 1961 A. Playford, Publisher. Box 120, Drayton Valley.

DRAYTON VALLEY "GOLDEN BOY"

Staff Picture.

Trainer and Boxing Club President Gordon Cross is holding the hard-hitting right arm of Rufus "Golden Boy" Combs. In centre of the picture is the huge trophy which Combs will keep for one year, which remains the property of the Cyclists Club who sponsor the annual Golden Gloves events. The two other trophies were won by Rufus, and will become his permanent property.

By Mike Gormley.

RUFUS COMBS, 1961 "GOLDEN BOY".

Drayton Valley's "Golden Boy" in amateur athletics rang in at 11:40 p.m., Saturday March 4, 1961 when one of its loyal sons was voted the outstanding competitor in Alberta's finest sports event to win the 139 pound championship in one of the greatest bouts of the tournament, by defeating Otto Hartman the Army prize. The victory and the accompanying honors were most timely as preparations for our own festive extravaganza are just well under way and Rufus' splash certainly will be a tremendous shot in the arm to our organizational efforts and especially on the publicity angle.

Combs did not compete at all on Friday's draw in the tournament, however, he was off and running against Germaine early Saturday afternoon. Rufus seemed to get a slow start against the tall, hard rock from the Legion team. He gained more ground, however, as the bout went on and finished very strong to carry a comfortable margin in the judges' voting. In the very next bout on the agenda Otto Hartman, P.P.C. L.L. defeated Billy Red Crow of the Blood Indian reserve in the other 139 pound Open Semi-Final, and the stage was set for the big "Fin-AT" between the Valley "Panther" and the "Army Tiger".

Against Hartman, Rufus Combs was calm, collected, dead serious and determined. He fought according to a plan designed by his seconds Gordon Cross and Don Booker, there was no wasted energy - every move was a step in the right direction toward victory, fame and glory. The powerful,

This week's "Personality" is Lori Ann Wilson, who was born on September 19th, 1955. Her father is well-known in this area as Corporal D.R. "Skip" Wilson, of the R.C.M.P. detachment in Drayton Valley.

Skip was born in Cardale, where his father was a United Church minister. After graduating from high school Wilson joined the R.C.M.P. in Crystal City, Manitoba. In July of this year he will have seen 20 years of service with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Corporal Wilson has served in many places, Edmonton, Leduc, and Devon, Wainwright, Redwater, St. Paul. In 1958 he opened the first R.C.M.P. detachment in Drayton Valley. He was transferred to Edmonton from here, then back to Edmonton where he served in the R.C.M.P. Detective Branch. Transferred back to Drayton Valley on the first of January 1960, he was promoted to the rank of corporal in November, 1960.

Wilson is president of the Drayton Valley Athletic Association. He is interested in all types of sport. He coached the 1961 League team ball team and played on the Senior Baseball team. He is a member of the Dominion Boxing Finals. He is a member of the United Church where he sings in the choir. He is also a member of the Athletic Board of Drayton Valley Legion.

Corporal Wilson married Miss J. Funchak, of Evansburg, in 1956.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

The 1961 Red Cross Campaign will get underway in Drayton Valley with full steam ahead, on Wednesday, March 15th, which date has been set for the official kick-off date by the local Red Cross committee. Campaign chairman is Lyt Krauter who is getting canvassers lined for the drive which will take two or three weeks to complete.

A few of the larger companies have already indicated their willingness to proceed with employee payroll deductions, and with the company matching the employee contributions dollar for dollar.

Some of the canvassers have already been assigned, and anyone who would like to take a part in this very worthwhile project as a canvasser for a particular area, perhaps the block in which their home is located, may get in touch with Mr. Krauter at the Hospital.

MUST RAISE QUOTA

Mr. D. Bruce Shaw, Chairman of the local Executive Committee of the Canadian Red Cross Society, warned that if the many Red Cross programs were to be maintained during the coming year the Society must raise the 1961 National Campaign Objective of $6,370,828 (Alberta's quota is $524,500)

Winner of the Grand Challenge Trophy was the Shirley Trucking, of Edmonton. Mr Shirley is second from the left.

During the night of the 14th, the rushing army fight was equally determined to carry away the foot and for two and one half rounds there was little to choose between the two gladiators, except that Combs was repeatedly beating the Army boy to the punch with stiff right hands to the head and face which turned Hartman's visage to a bloody mask. Half way through the final round the big bomb exploded and the host, the championship and the "Golden Boy" (Cont. from page 2, Col. 5)

Award were all won in a split second. Rufus had pouncing his opponent, looking for an opening and finally he found a weakness. It was the Army's right defense. He got a terrific right hand smash which landed with stunning force along the lower rope. The Army pulled himself to his feet before the count had expired but it was no longer a matter of who would win the bout but from here the question was, could Hartman survive the blow with his eye dangerous opponent and continued to dominate proceedings until the final bell. Two judges saw it 59-68 in favor of Combs while the other made it 60-58. It was a terrific scrap from beginning to end with that one big right hand smash making all the difference in the world as far as Rufus Combs and Drayton Valley supporters were concerned.

It was a great weekend for Drayton Valley, much more than any of us ever expected. We would have been satisfied with a championship or two, but Rufus made a clean sweep. He won Open Class title at his weight, was voted the best Open fighter in the tournament and finally, that big one, that is the dream of every amateur boxer in Alberta.

A GOLDEN BOY: He went - he won - he conquered - and what is more, he brought home the most coveted trophy in Alberta's amateur sports circles. Rufus Combs is "Golden Boy" for 1961 which the prize, the joy and the delight of all Drayton Valley hockey fans and sports enthusiasts. The Pembina Panthers made a clean sweep in the Optimum Golden Glove Tournament held at the Sales Pavilion in Edmonton last Friday and Saturday. First of all he got by the durable veteran Teddy Germaine of the South "Sledge Hammer" to qualify for the title bout in which he won the "Golden Glove" Open Championship by defeating the Army's Otto Hamman in a real thriller. His champion ship safe in the bag, Combs then was voted Best Open Light weight of the tournament, and finally, the big one, "Golden Boy" for 1961.

Rufus was one happy fellow as was his handlers Gordon Cross and Don Bookler and everyone of the Drayton Valley delegation who had attended the "Big Event". After the first waves of emotion, excitement and joy had passed, Combs said that he could not believe in he had gone to Edmonton quite determined to win with the 139 pound Open championship but he did not think he would ever qualify for the top honors of Golden Boy. If Rufus did not actually think that he would be in the running for top honors there were others in the B.V. delegation who had confidence in the Pembina Panther's ability in any kind or class of fancy competition and were not giving up hope until all was said and done. Personally I was very happy with the turn of events, but not at all surprised. In fact I would have been very disappointed had he not made the clean sweep because, frankly, I think Rufus Combs is the finest amateur fighter in Alberta today and now when he would be my choice against any boy of his class in Canada today. This we will get a chance to see on May 12 and 13 when the Canadian Amateur Boxing Championships are held here in Drayton Valley. By this time it is almost certain that Combs will be showing leader in the Domestic Tournament. It would be pretty hard for a non-resident competitor to overtake a home-town boy with a "Golden Boy" tag on him and more than likely by that time, a provincial title.

Right now it would seem that there will be no Northern or Southern championships held in Alberta this year, so there will be only one big tournament here the Drayton Valley card, which will be the Provincial Finals in Calgary in late March or early April. With the Northern Tournament being off for the year, no more and more emphasis will be put on Golden Glove performance.

RICKY with the breakup of the hockey during the mid week last week a lot of hockey interest nearly fell by the wayside. On the whole, however, we were exceedingly lucky as all schools, clubs, games and play-offs were level both in the Town Minor Leagues and at the other higher levels were all completed before Old Sol got too hot and as ice hockey lovers were concerned.

The Barons had their big evening last Tuesday when all players and coaches met at the local rink and trophies were awarded to deserving teams and individuals. R. McLean, President of the Rotary Club presented the three trophies donated by the Rotary for Barons hockey in this community.

The Rotary Trophy, (the team award) a beautiful prize went to the D.V.A.A. Barons and was presented to Rotarian Captain Mike Hirt and coach Nick Lichthardt. This award is a unique thing and will be awarded annually to the Barons League champions in town competition. Kenny Billa received the High School Trophy and Mike Schmitt was the recipient of the sportsmanship award. There were a couple of other players who deserve honorable mention at this time for excellent performance throughout the season in the Barons League. The most valuable player in the league was the Barons' forward, Kenny Billa who had a great season with the Blue and Gold. Terry McLennan was the league's finest goalie and the top wingman who the Barons won the Rotary Cup this year.

All decisions have been made and a few trophies have been made available for the Free Week in the Town League also. The B.V.O.C. donated a beautiful team trophy and which was won this year by the D.V.A.A. Barons. Under the direction of Bill Ward and Clayton Rosenberg.

There is also a Most Valuable Player Trophy and a Sportsmanship trophy, all of which will be presented to deserving competitors on evening in the very near future. On the whole, it was a very good hockey season, we saw some very fine games and across the sheet we won our share of games at every level. There are a few misgivings here and there, shortcomings in organization, and general overall directions, but the good points were far outweighed the bad ones, so I guess you could say that a hockey season in Drayton Valley was a successful one. If the mistakes and shortcomings of the past season can be taken and used in a constructive manner I am sure that our hockey program next season will be much improved and more enjoyable and beneficial to all concerned.

Canada with blood provided to every hospital patient without charge. Last year Red Cross collected 647,000 bottles of blood to maintain this supply and should the cost of over three million dollars to provide this service.

"There is an odd thing about Red Cross," Mr. Shaw asserted.

"Many people cannot believe we actually need the money we ask for. This might be due, he felt, to the perfect Red Cross record of performance which had never fallen down on the job of mercy, but it was necessary to correct this wrong impression and be frank in telling the public the true financial position of Red Cross.

MUST CONTINUE AID

Red Cross is building "Bridges of Friendship" for all of Canada through its International Assistance program and must continue to elevate the standard of the world's poor, declared Mr. Ronen Baetz, Assistant National Commissioner. Mr. Baetz, who headed the Canadian Red Cross team sent to Chile following the major earthquake disaster last year, painted a vivid word picture of the chaos which existed following the disaster which left 800,000 homeless and 5,000 dead.

Despite difficulties encountered in distributing tons of relief supplies without aid of transport or communication facilities Mr. Baetz reported that local groups rose to the challenge when the need was greatest without regard of race, color or creed. The Chilean people now have a warmer friendship with Canada because of Red Cross came to their aid.

A review of Red Cross provincial achievements in 1960 was contained in annual reports of committee chairman which revealed continued progress in all aspects of Red Cross service operating throughout the province.

During 1960 64,943 bottles of blood were collected by Red Cross to provide transfusions to more than 16,000 patients in Alberta hospitals. Junior Red Cross members in Alberta classrooms contributed over $20,000 for assistance of refugees and disaster victims abroad, made over hundreds of health kits and other relief supplies and related more than $3,600 for treatment of handicapped children. More than 23,000 persons were enrolled in the Red Cross Water Safety program during the year with 863 instructors qualified 164 Senior Leaders trained and 75 lesser awards granted. Red Cross Women's Work groups produced over 23,000 items of clothing and bedding for refugees and victims of world disasters in addition to making over 500,000 items of medical supplies for B.T.S. depots. More than 500 victims of minor disasters in the province received Red Cross aid in the past year through distribution of food, clothing and bedding valued at close to $2,000. The Red Cross sick room loan cupboard provided 284 articles of sick room supplies to over 700 patients in 1960 and 187 persons were located for relatives through the Red Cross Enquiry Bureau. Through the Red Cross Venereal Service 3,287 hospitalized venereal cases were given handcraft instruction, comfort and entertainment.

SLOGAN CONTEST NEWS RELEASE.

Judging by the first entries in the Alberta Tourist Association's slogan contest, Albertans can think of as many colorful descriptions for their province as the Province offers colorful places to visit.

"The judges of this contest will really face a difficult task," commented Herb Webster, secretary of the A.T.A.

The contest is designed to obtain for the A.T.A. a slogan that will be descriptive of all of Alberta, from top to bottom and side to side. The slogan may combine the many appeals that Alberta holds as a vacationland or a nice place to live, but the whole should be condensed to ten words or so.

For the winning slogan the A.T.A. is offering a weekend for two at any Alberta resort of the winer's choice. The A.T.A. will arrange the accommodation. The prize may be collected any weekend except in July or August.

Entries have been received at the rate of about one a day from all over the Province. The contest is restricted to resident Albertans. Entries should be marked "Slogan Contest" and mailed to the Alberta Tourist Association, 810 Centre Street, Calgary. The contest closes April 30th.

REPORT FROM LEGISLATURE

From the Legislative Press
Gallery - Russ Shepard, CICA, reporting.

Albert's broader base of taxation will result in reduced mill rates for at least forty-one town and eight cities, according to Municipal Affairs Minister A.J. Hooke speaking in the Alberta Legislature in the Throne Speech debate. Mr. Hooke outlined the new concept of education and municipal taxation. It's a four point program designed to "head off" direct educational expenditures and stabilize costs in future years, said Mr. Hooke. Calgary and Medicine Hat will not experience tax decreases.

The four points as outlined by the Minister are: (1) All Government buildings, including the Alberta Government Telephone system will be placed on the tax rolls. Grants to the full extent of the tax will be paid by the Province. (2) Power lines and pipelines will also go on the tax rolls. Expenditures from this classification are Rural Electrification Association power lines, Rural Telephone Association lines and municipal water and sewer systems. (3) Industry will be taxed on a basis of 100 per cent for land and buildings and 80 per cent on equipment. The equipment taxation is cut in half and will result in a considerable saving for industry. Mr. Hooke. Each municipality will continue to collect this tax. (4) Education will be placed on the same basis as hospitalization. The hospital program calls for a 1/2 mill tax rate allocated to a Provincial pool. Mr. Hooke said legislation will be introduced to establish a uniform education tax in all municipalities at a maximum of .32 - mills. The Government will pay 100 per cent of the costs over the .32 - mill level under the foundation education program to be announced later by Education Minister A.O. Ashberg. This portion of the program is expected to cover all approved capital construction costs. Other exemptions from tax under the program are all government, municipal and civic hospitals, all farm buildings and all government educational buildings. Outside the Legislature Mr. Hooke said that all municipalities work on the basis of this program, and they certainly should be able to, there is no reason why tax relief can't be handed on to home owners. Other officials pointed out that municipalities have had to cut back on capital programs due to rising education costs. It's quite possible the municipalities will want to catch up on these programs or to help pay off municipal debt.

Ed Gehart, (SC-Bidmore NW) expressed the opinion that teachers should work longer hours, five PM with the extra hour used for teaching slow students, marking papers, preparing records, attending staff meetings or extracurricular activities.

Randolph McKinnon (SC-Strathcona West) defended the teachers and said that problems in education are the responsibility of society as a whole. He advocated a fourth "R" in education for responsibility.

The Legislature gave unanimous approval to a private member's motion calling for a Federal inquiry into the price of drugs and the costs of manufacturing and marketing them to determine if the prices charged consumers are just and fair. Debaters spoke of the "emotion" connected with the subject because the price of drugs touches everyone. The berg announced he would make a statement before the end of the session concerning Government action on the recommendations contained in the report of the Cameron Royal Commission on Education. The Minister said his department and educational organizations throughout the Province had given the Cameron report extensive study and the recommendations were being complied.

Some of the recommendations have already been implemented, while others were being prepared for implementation.

Emmet Watkins (PC-Calgary Glenora) opened the Throne Speech debate with commendation for some government proposals in the Speech. He said he awaited with interest full details of the new program of educational financing and the broader tax base on real property. He moved a non-confidence motion in the Social Credit Government for failing to co-operate with the Government of Canada in such fields as crop insurance, urban development, students' residences at the University, vocational training and rural rehabilitation and development. His motion was seconded by F.L. Gainer, (Coalition - Banff Cochrane), but the two stood alone when they attempted to force a division and standing vote on the question. The Social Credit majority laughed at the attempt and defeated the motion on a voice vote.

Erl Ansley, (Ind. SC-Leduc) said the nature of the majority and minority reports contained in it represent a crossroads in the field of education. He said the decisions made as a result of the 280 recommendations in the report will be the most important for some time to come. Mr. Ansley, who had been Education Minister for the Government in 1948, asked how much guidance will be accepted from the Legislature in formulating the policies.

Ed Gehart, (SC-Bidmore NW) expressed the opinion that teachers should work longer hours, five PM with the extra hour used for teaching slow students, marking papers, preparing records, attending staff meetings or extracurricular activities.

The Legislature gave unanimous approval to a private member's motion calling for a Federal inquiry into the price of drugs and the costs of manufacturing and marketing them to determine if the prices charged consumers are just and fair. Debaters spoke of the "emotion" connected with the subject because the price of drugs touches everyone. The motion was moved and seconded by two Calgary Social Credit M.A.s, Albert Ludwig, and Donald S. Fleming.

Emmet Watkins (PC-Calgary - Glenora) expressed pleasure when his motion calling for support of the assembly for the Federal Government's National Oil policy met with favorable support from the government members. At the same time Industry and Development Minister A.R. Patrick lead an attack on the Federal Government for the delay in coming up with such a policy. He pointed out that Alberta had suggested such a policy two years ago. The delay resulted in unnecessary economic losses to Alberta and Canada as a whole.

Mr. Watkins moved another motion calling for a verbatim record of debates and business of the Legislature. This is the seventh year in succession the subject has been debated. From the time of debate by Government members, it will rather the same fate as in the past. Neither of these two motions had come to a vote as the first full week of the Legislature sitting ended.

Other highlights... Premier Manning said his Government did not propose to introduce legislation at this session to prevent trade unions from transferring funds to political parties.

Welfare Minister Jorgenson reported 31 home for Senior Citizens were in operation with an average occupancy of only 57.8 per cent.

Highways Minister Taylor called for an investigation into electrical equipment prices and criticized the cost of warning light systems at highway crossings.

GRAIN VARIETIES

The 1961 edition of Varieties of Grain for Alberta is now available at this office. Based on tests conducted over a period of years across the province, the pamphlet outlines those grains which have proven best for each district. To be sure that you are getting the most from your grain land, be sure to grow a recommended variety. If you haven't changed your seed in many years it is quite likely that a better variety is available to you.

FORAGE VARIETIES

More improved forage varieties are coming on the scene each year. Soon it will be just as unlikely that you would simply ask for "alfalfa" as it is that you would buy barley without knowing the variety.

Each recommended forage variety is better than commercial forage seed, and it pays to use such improved varieties. Climate Time by is considerably superior to Commercial Timothy, and this is true for all types of forage seed. A leaflet outlining these improved varieties is available at this office.

MOVING TREES

We are often asked about the transplanting of large trees. In landscaping the new office building at the Lacombe Farm, several 15 foot white spruce trees were moved in early spring as soon as the frost was out of the ground sufficiently to permit digging. A tractor with a front-end loader was used to lift and move the trees, carrying a ball of earth around the roots about 3 1/2 feet and 1 1/2 feet deep. This seemed to be big enough to retain enough roots to allow the trees to continue growing.

POLLINATION OF LEGUMES

Anyone producing clover or alfalfa seed needs to have a thorough understanding of the manner in which pollination is carried out. The activity of honey and wild bees is vital to seed production. It is the dependence of alfalfa or wild bees, for instance, that makes it necessary for alfalfa fields to be small, and the preference of honey bees for sweet clover necessitates keeping alfalfa a good distance from it.

A complete outline of pollination of bees, and the importance of this to seed growers and beekeepers, is contained in the new booklet "Pollination of Legumes", available at this office. Suggestions as to how to provide for agreement between seedgrowers and beekeepers.

"WORLD OF CHANGE"

To those who live where winter's snows come early, fall heavily, and stay long, no living season so permanent in the early months of the year, as the season's icy grip.

Then, suddenly, it is spring. All unobserved, the frost line slowly rises, dormant seeds are active by the earth's molar warmth, green shoots pierce the surface, and almost overnight colored blooms burst forth with startling loveliness. Then we know that the comforting phase, "This, too, shall pass away" includes even winter.

Until that moment when we see the first - fruits of the seeds so hopefully planted, it is comforting to know that the seeds are there, that, if they are good seeds they will bear fruit in due season. Recently, horticulturists successfully raised plants from centuries old seeds found among archaeological ruins.

Infinitely more lasting is the seed of the Word of God, found in every passage of Holy Scriptures. Jesus certainly made a perfect choice when He used the example of seed and soil to describe the close relationship between God and man.

"A sower went out to sow his seed: some fell by the wayside; some (fell upon a rock); some (fell among thorns); and some (fell on good ground)." Luke 8:5-8

Our Lord went on to liken each receptive place of the seed to a different kind of person. But we know only too well that all these varying results also may be related to each one of us. The seed that falls by the wayside can be the Holy Scriptures we never study. When we pick up our Bible to read but our minds are on something else, the words fall upon the rock-hard surface of our eyes and die there. When our minds and eyes are on the sacred pages but our hearts yearn far afield, the thorns of our sins arise to choke out the goodness that would take root. It is only when we eye, mind and heart together are properly prepared that the Word can fulfill its purpose in our lives. It is the only way to end our personal wear and being to a fruitful life, a world of springlike change.

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." St. John 11:25-26

BOASTING

Boasting results in death! This statement is illustrated by an ancient legend.

"The frog, a frequent symbol of boasting, sought to join a flight of geese in their migration. He drew a ruck from the swamp, and asked two geese each to hold an end firmly in their mouths. The frog then held himself aloft by gripping the middle of the lead in his mouth. All went well until the frog heard the surprised comments of people beholding this spectacle, and when he heard one ask "What genius conceived this means of transport?" he could not suppress the boast "I did," but opening his mouth to boast sent him to his doom."

Many of us who live in Drayton Valley do considerable boasting: "When I am visiting in another town or city I never miss an opportunity to boast about Drayton Valley. This seems to be a harmless pastime. We might go so far as to say that it is a very noble pastime from the point of view of the Chamber of Commerce, but I would ask you to seriously consider whether we really have anything to boast about."

It is not true to say that those things in life which are among the higher values need not be the subject of boasting? Boasting is brought about by a sense of inferiority. This is a fact that we would do well to come to terms with. The patient who went to see the psycho-analyst because he had an inferiority complex was told that he need not worry about "You are inferior," was the reassuring word of the Doctor. It is well that we recognize that we are inferior. To recognize that we are inferior brings the meaning of life into its true perspective. If I am inferior there must be one who is superior. God is superior. I thus come before God in humility recognizing my own inadequacy and his competency to save me from meaninglessness in life.

To boast upon the riches of an oil field, the rapid growth of a town or of the abundance of possessions is a pitiful and pathetic loss of his power to redeem and to save brings to man a feeling of personal humility but much more - the hope of life eternal. Let us remember the parable of the frog. It is often wise to keep your mouth shut.

Reports

Recent revisions to the Veterans Pension Act are now before the House. This bill will give an average increase of 20% to all veteran pensioners. This has now passed second reading and is being studied by the Veterans Affairs Committee. I am sure that this will be welcome news to the many veteran pensioners across the country.

In speaking on the Bill, the Minister of Veterans Affairs, Honourable Gordon Churchill, also stated that a review was being made of the War Veterans Allowance legislation with a view to bringing it in line with the new pension act. To give you some idea of what this means to our pensioners - 100% pensioners will now receive if married with no children $2880 per year as compared to $2400 formerly.

A 50% pensioner will now receive if married with no child ren $1440 per year as against $1200 previously.

YOUR FIRE DEPARTMENT

By Ron Quinn

As pointed out, this week's column is being devoted to water lines and heating tapes. It may be a little late in the season, but there's still time for lots of trouble in fact we're just coming into the time of the year when water lines cause the most trouble.

When hooking up a water line and installing a heating tape there is just one main point to remember: there are no shortcuts to doing a proper job. Make sure your line is dry and absolutely free on any leak. Start the heating tape from at least a foot below ground level and wind it evenly right up to where the line enters the trailer or building. Do not allow the heating tape to cross itself anywhere or it will burn out in practically no time.

Make sure the insulation you apply is even and perfectly dry or it will be useless. And, install a thermostat on the tape. Not only will you save the cost of it in almost no time because less power is used, but it will keep the line from getting too hot, thereby eliminating a fire hazard. A fire started around a water line is particularly dangerous because it is not usually detected early and therefore has lots of time to get a good start. Also the underfloor insulation is the first to catch fire and is extremely difficult to extinguish. Water damage can run high.

And finally, a word of caution about thawing out a frozen line. Be very, very careful not to use too much heat; copper tubing doesn't show how much heat it is conducting until some thing starts smouldering and a fire has started. Or a soldered joint might melt loose and cause an awful mess.

The writer has had personal experience with both the melted connection and the underfloor fire and is well qualified to state that they are messy, expensive, and most embarrassing situations to get into.

returned to Drayton Valley on February 12. Last year, during the summer, Mrs. Berns returned to the Old Country for a trip. She was gone about two months.

For our German readers, the following was taken from a German paper telling of Berns' arrival home.

Gratulant kam aus Kanada

Bäckermeister E. R. Peter Berns, Bachmeyer Straße 31b, vollendete in diesen Tagen sein 80. Lebensjahr. In Göttingen geboren, gründete der Jubilar vor mehr als 50 Jahren ein eigenes Unternehmen, das heute von seiner Tochter Kathi Eickhoff geführt wird. Frau Berns gratulierten Peter Berns. Sohn Ernst (47 Jahre) war heute aus Kanada gekommen, wo er sich vor neun Jahren mit Frau und zwei Kindern in Drayton Valley eine neue Existenz gründete.

with his older brother, and an older sister to his right, to his left is his eighty-year-old father, his younger sister and his younger brother. The picture was taken in the cafe, owned by the family, next door to the family bakery. Herr Berns, bought the bakery 57 years ago, he is a masterbaker. Berns mother passed away several years ago.

Emile says it was nice to visit the old country, and to see his father, but it was also very nice to come back to Drayton Valley again, and to see his own family. The family in the old country asked him to stay there, but Emile declined, as he now feels Canada is his home. He has been here for ten years and was naturalized about three years ago. He

Local Man Visits Germany

On January 15 Emile Berns, of Berns' Super Market, took off on the C.P.A. Polar flight to see his old father who had been seriously ill in Göttingen, and did not expect to live. However, Emile recovered just before he arrived and was able to be home for his sons' arrival.

A note on the fast shrinking world may be found in the time which Emile consumed in the flight. He left Edmonton Airport and landed in Amsterdam, in exactly twelve hours. Then another hour put him in Düsseldorf near his hometown of Essen, for a total travel time of thirteen hours. On a trip that once would have taken about thirteen weeks.

School Meeting

About 200 persons gathered in the auditorium of the Frank Maddock High School last Friday night to hear or to take part in a meeting that had been called, according to the posted notices for the purpose of discussing complaints against the operation of Frank Maddock High School.

All available chairs were taken and about a hundred persons were standing along the walls of the auditorium, to take part in the meeting which had aroused much interest among residents of this area.

Sony Plain School Division was represented by Mr. Harnoch, Divisional School Inspector. Mr. Frank Maddock, Chairman of the School Division Board and Mr. A. Boychuck, secretary of the School Division. Also present was Dr. Barn, of the Department of Education. Chairman of the local school board Mr. E. Lindskog called for nominations for a chairman for the meeting and Mr. Bud Bryson was nominated and elected to chair the meeting. The Rev. A. Wright was nominated and elected to act as secretary. In a rather exacting position Mr. Bryson chaired the meeting very capably during the consideration of most of those present, for the way in which he kept the meeting running in an orderly fashion.

The complaint that had been filed was dealt with one by one, with the chairman requesting that whoever had made the complaint to stand for it and to state the complete nature of the complaint. It was noticed in the meeting that often when the complaint was brought up apparently it was supported by a very few, who either had the facts, or the authority to assist to the best of their attempt to substantiate the complaint. However, these who made the complaints, evidently had many sympathizers among the audience.

A motion was passed at the close of the meeting that the whole matter be put into the hands of the local school board for further investigation and that the school board be charged with the responsibility of informing the public of the outcome of their findings.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

Drayton Valley Chamber of Commerce members met in the Club Cafe for a dinner meeting last Thursday, March 2nd, with a fair representation of members on hand to hear Mr. Mark Stagg of the Town and Rural Planning Commission give a very interesting talk on the subject of rural planning.

Before the dinner meeting started new members of the executive were duly installed in office; among the Executive for the ensuing year is C.D. Fehr, president, L. Brando, vice-president, J.G. Cunin, treasurer, and W. G. Johansen, secretary.

Mr. Stagg gave an unusually fine talk on Rural Planning surveys and Rural Planning Analysis in which he pointed out that the primary objective of the planning commission is to determine the manner in which development land should be used and the stages by which it will be developed. He pointed out that any laws and regulations that are passed are relating to the public welfare, and the planner is acting as a public servant.

He told of a step in development bylaw which has been passed to make easier the early control of rural districts where a sudden surge of development takes place. The speaker stressed that Drayton Valley should look into the possibilities of the district for a secondary industry or industry, to be ready for a future date when the development takes place in this field.

Mr. Stagg showed an unusual grasp of the situation in relationship to the province - wide rural planning, and also as it applied to the local area in local improvement districts. He has been in this planning the country just four months, coming from England, where he had obtained a degree in Planning, at the University of Durham. In England he had been with the Royal Engineers and since coming to Canada is acting as Advisor to the Royal Canadian Engineers.

Accompanying Mr. Stagg to Drayton Valley was another member of the Town and Rural Planning Branch, Miss Margarette Roder, a stenographer with the Branch. Miss Roder came to Canada from America about three years ago.

part of neighborhood residents of the Tomahawk district to extinguish it. A "bucket brigade" was formed of volunteers from the neighborhood, one of whom, Mr. Schoop's Service Station, Tomahawk, was slightly burned and was brought to Drayton Valley Municipal Hospital, by Curt Clauson, of Curt's Studio, Drayton Valley.

Apparently the fire started in the basement, with the probable cause being a faulty stove on the furnace. A few minor explosions were heard just before the fire broke out. Mr. Humer was in the metal shop at the time the fire was discovered, and he found that the flames were well underway by the time he discovered them. The fire was almost brought under control at one time but finally, the lack of fire extinguishers, hampered the fire-fighters, and the flames broke out again. Loss is estimated to

Leslie Southwell, superintendent of the Drayton Valley Pipe Line, is a native of Toronto where his father operated a grocery store. After graduating from High School in Toronto he joined the R.C.A.F. in November, 1942, stationed in England during the war. Les was on quite a number of operational missions, serving as bombardier. From the time of graduating from the Institute, until 1961 he prospectored and mined underground. In 1961 he came to the "Golden West", going to work in Pembina mine, near Radium Hot Springs, B.C. as mine foreman.

HIGHWAY ACCIDENTS

Two accidents, on the Highway 57, north of town, marked the past week and the beginning of this week. The first occurred on Tuesday, about 19 miles north of Drayton Valley when a car driven by Edward Hillebrand, of Edmonton was in collision with a car driven by Mr. Ken McKay of Drayton Valley as Mr. McKay was returning to Drayton Valley. Extensive damage was done to both vehicles. R.C.M.P. officers from Drayton Valley were called to the scene of the accident. About 7 o'clock, last Sunday evening a three vehicle tangle at the intersection of 57th Street and Highway 57, on the north side of town, caused very extensive damage to two of the vehicles, and also caused damage to the third.
